BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Bradley's unique life began in a small village in central Mexico in 1969. At age 15, he became exposed to the local Cartel in that region only to return after serving in the U.S. Army and discharging in 1974 to begin his career as a smuggler and later a distributor in the Pacific Northwest. A time came to get out and after the agreement was betrayed by the Cartel Dr Bradley walked into the Asst. U.S. Attorney's office and offered to take the P. N.W. faction down. Facing prison and death did not deter him from the mission he agreed to... Sentenced to 8 years in prison, he was released 4 years early to become a contractor for various agencies under the DOJ. 17 years... Numerous missions in foreign countries.. Kidnapped.. Survived a kill order.. Framed.. And during all of this completing seminary and received formal Ordination in 1999.

An incredible life...and unforgettable story

Dr. Bradley's unique and detailed book describes surviving decades of horror-filled experiences in the world of the drug cartels, and his journey in converting to Christianity while being a contractor for various agencies under the umbrella of the DOJ.

You'll read about Dr. Bradley preaching in the pulpit or sitting around a campfire in a homeless camp...having another rape victim, beaten and robbed, deposited on his doorstep in the middle of the night...waiting for the phone to ring with his next mission to a land South of our borders.

This was his life. This is his story...
